

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ACQUISITION OF SOLYNEO'S ASSETS

September 2019 – Radiall is pleased to announce the acquisition of Solyneo's assets as of August 29th. Solyneo is a French startup based in Perouges (close to Lyon, France). The engineering company specializes in producing prototypes of highly efficient and reliable free-space power transmissions for demanding environments.

This acquisition will strengthen Radiall's technology portfolio and expand our product offering of power interconnect solutions. Adding Solyneo's technology to Radiall's free-space, high-speed data transmission (optical and MW) solutions will allow Radiall to address more applications in markets such as transportation, industrial and aerospace.
